THE HON'BLE MR JUSTICE R.SUBHASH REDDY

WRIT PETITION NO :17095 of 2006

ORDER:

This Writ Petition has been filed seeking Writ of Mandamus to declare the action of the respondents in not allotting a seat to the petitioner in the first year MBBS course for the academic year 2006-2007 in the quota reserved for Children of Armed Personnel (CAP), by setting aside the allotment of seats in favour of 6th and 7th respondents.

The petitioner is granted admission in BDS course. His main grievance is that as much as the seventh respondent is not eligible for grant of admission to MBBS course and as he is the next candidate in rank in the category of Children of Armed personnel (CAP), he is eligible for admission to MBBS course. But, it is stated by the learned Standing Counsel appearing for the respondents that the admission of the seventh respondent in MBBS course is pursuant to the directions of a Division Bench of this Court in Writ Appeal No. 2617 of 2005, wherein directions were issued for admission of the 7th respondent in MBBS course for the academic year 2006-2007 in the quota reserved for children of Armed Personnel (CAP).

As much as the admission of the 7th respondent in MBBS course is pursuant to the orders of the Division Bench of this Court, it is not open for the petitioner to question the same in this Writ Petition. So far as sixth respondent is concerned, he has not been admitted to MBBS course and the same does not have any bearing to the case of the petitioner. As much as it is stated that only one seat is available in the quota reserved for children of Armed Personnel (CAP), and the same has been filled up pursuant to the directions of a Division Bench of this Court, I do not find any valid ground for grant of relief as prayed for in this writ petition.

The Writ Petition is devoid of merits and is accordingly dismissed. No order as to costs.

JUSTICE R. SUBHASH REDDY
